

SUPPORT, TRAINING & EDUCATION PROFESSIONALS

Weston College are pleased to be able to offer our new STEPS course which has been designed especially for people who want to develop their career as a teacher or trainer.

The Award in Education and Training qualification is the perfect first step in preparing to teach adults and can open the door to a variety of training based careers. It is also an excellent opportunity for targeted staff development for those whose roles already include an element of teaching or training others.

The course has been designed for flexible study and will include but tutor supported classes and elements of self directed study.

Topics covered on the course include:

- Roles, Responsibilities and Relationships in Education and Training
- Engagement, Information, Advice and Guidance
- Inclusive Approaches to Teaching and Learning
- Facilitating Learning and Development

The course is FREE for anyone living in Bristol, B&NES or South Gloucestershire and can lead on to further training and development opportunities including higher level qualifications in teaching and IAG.

To register your interest please email employmentsupport@weston.ac.uk

Next Course Starts:
6th June 2022
