

Are you looking for work experience, a chance to learn new skills and build up your confidence..?

Join FareChance!

About the programme:

- The FareChance programme is delivered from FareShare South West's food operation warehouse in Bedminster, South Bristol.
- FareShare rescues good, surplus food and delivers to charities, food banks and schools across the South West.
- FareChance is an inspiring, and supportive employability programme that offers 18 to 25-year-olds a chance to gain meaningful work experience, learn practical warehouse skills and build self-esteem to embrace their full potential – in work, education, and in daily life.
- We will build your CV with experience, help you gain qualifications, and provide you with support to work out your next steps in life.
